EXTRACT FROM NARPO RULES (PART 2) – MEMBERSHIP (2017)

6 Categories of membership

General

- 6.1 Membership of the Association is at the discretion of the Branch. Applicants for membership are required to disclose any antecedent matter, which could bring discredit on the Association; the onus to disclose such matters rests with the applicant.
- 6.1.1 All Members are expected to maintain a high standard of conduct and to comply with the Rules of the Association. Members are also expected to treat other members, guests, officers and employees of the Association with respect.
- 6.1.2 A Branch has the right to terminate the membership of any member who does not meet the standards set in 6.1.1

Membership

- 6.2 Subject to Rule 6.1, Full Membership of the Association shall be open to former Police officers who have served in a Police Force (Police Force) and who have met the minimum service, age or ill health requirements that would entitle them to a police pension (Police Pension); and who have not been dismissed or required to resign from a police force by reason of misconduct.
- 6.2.1 A Branch may confer Life membership on any Full Member who, in the opinion of that Branch, has given outstanding service to the Association either at branch or at national level. A Full Member on whom Life membership has been conferred shall continue to be a Full Member of that Branch and shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of Full Membership for life unless he/she ceases to be a member under the provisions of Rule 6.1.2 or Rule 9.
- 6.3 Subject to rule 6.1, Membership may be granted by a Branch Committee to any person who is not eligible to join the Branch as a Full Member.
- 6.3.1 the spouse (Spouse) of a Full Member shall be deemed to be a Member of the Association.
- 6.3.2 Only a Full Member may;
- 6.3.2.1 be an Officer of a Branch (Officers of a Branch) Note: this Rule shall not apply to any Member who was already in post prior to Conference 2016
- 6.3.2.2 be eligible to attend Conference (Conference) as a Delegate; or
- 6.3.2.3 be entitled or eligible for election to the NEC.
- 6.3.3 Any Full Member may apply to join another branch as a Member but may not be a Full Member of more than one branch.
